CASE STUDY

The following case study illustrates the application of the proposed model to a real-world problem.

The case study is divided into two parts: a description of the problem and a description of the solution.

The first part of the case study describes the problem and the data that were used to solve it.

The second part of the case study describes the solution and the results of the analysis.

The case study shows that the proposed model is able to solve the problem and that the results are consistent with the expected outcomes.

The case study also shows that the proposed model is able to handle complex problems and that the results are robust.

The case study demonstrates the effectiveness of the proposed model and its ability to solve real-world problems.

GIDEON KIMBERLY

The Prindle Genealogy, Appendix Note 3, p. 239, by Franklin Prindle, 1906, gives the KIMBERLY line from THOMAS to GIDEON inclusive.

p. 241- "Gideon Kimberly b. m9 Oct. 1735, Mary Osborne of Stratford, makes choice of his brother Abraham as his guardian, Dec. 12, 1728-d. in Norwalk, Feb. 1759. Nathan Hubbell Jr. appointed Administrator of the estate, Dec. 20, Sabra & Joel Prindle had a son Zalmon who was in the Revolutionary War & a pensioner. He served in the same organizations as did Ephraim Kimberly but as a private, and for the six years, as also did Ephraim as an officer.

After the War, the Prindles, Hawleys, Hards & Kimberlys from Newtown migrated to N.Y. & Vt.

Zalmon Prindle m. Mary Williams, dau. of Abr. Williams & Mary See at South Salem, Westchester Co., N.Y., May 13, 1784. They went to Sandgate, Bennington Co., Vt. in 1786, the wife & mother carrying her infant son Zenas, in her arms on horseback. She died at Ft. Edward, Wash. Co. N.Y.
Mar. 19, 1861. Zenas Prindle was b. at Tarrytown, Apr. 17, 1786, going later to Sandgate, Vt., with his father, Zalmon, who was following his father, Joel, uncles Nathan & Jonathon & other kindred from Newtown, Conn.

EPHRAIM KIMBERLY

Exact documentary evidence is lacking to prove Ephraim the son of Gideon, but Miss Scofield, genealogist with the N. Haven Hist. Soc. says: "We arrive at the belief that Ephraim must have been a son of Gideon Kimberly by a process of elimination. Knowing the approximate time of Ephraim's birth he does not fit into any other Kimberly line.

The name Ephraim seems to have been introduced into the family by the Osborne marriage. That is, it was not a Kimberly name. There were two Mary Osbornes born in 1715. One was the dau. of an Ephraim Osborne. The other was the dau. of a John Osborne whose eldest son was named Ephraim."

Miss Scofield found-

A Phoebe Kimberly who m.Wm.Burwell, in Newtown, Dec.1,1765.

In Sept.7, 1772 John Kimberly chose Wm.Burwell to be his guardian.

In baptismal rec. at Wilton Church, Oct.1740, Phoebe Kimberly, whom she thinks must be a dau. of Gideon.

Also, June 1753, Sarah, dau. of Gideon.

Also, Mabel, 1747.

Ephraim was guardian of Mabel.

She thinks John is son of Gideon.

She said, "Nothing has been written up about the Newtown branch of the Kimberly family but I saw in print that Ephraim Kimberly's family had received supplies from the town while he was in the service during the Revolution."

From Office of Adj.Gen.War Dept., Wash. D.C.

"Ephraim Kimberly served in the Revolutionary War as 2nd. Lieut. in Capt. Sam'l. Comstock's Co.8, Conn.Reg.commanded successively by Col.John Chandler,Maj.Joseph Hiat, Col.Giles Russell & Lieut.Col.Isaac Sherman. He was commissioned Jan.1,1777; was appointed or commissioned 1st.Lieut., dates variously shown as Mch.19, 10,1778, Feb.14,21,24,1778, Jan.8,28,1778, was transferred in Jan.1781, to Capt. Brigham's Co., also designated Capt.Richard Sill's & 8th. Co. 5th Conn.Reg. commanded by Lieut.Col.Isaac Sherman; was transferred July 1, 1781 to Capt.Hodge's Co., also designated 5th Co.same Reg.; was transferred in Mch.1782, to Capt.Benton's Co. also designated 7th. Co., same Reg.; was transferred Sept.20,1782, to the 8th Co. 4th Conn. Reg., commanded by Col.Butler & borne on the Sept. Company Muster Roll as Captain, commissioned Apr.13,1782; was transferred in Nov. 1782, to the 7th Company 2nd Conn. Reg. commanded by Col. Heman Swift, and his name last appears on the Company Muster Roll for Apr. 1783, dated May 26, 1783, with remark "On furlough by His Excellency."

Also -

"John Kimberly served as a Sergeant in Capt. Samuel Comstock's Company 8th. Conn.Reg. commanded successively by Col.Giles Russell & Col.John Chandler. He enlisted Feb.23,1777 for the war & was discharged Aug.16,1777."

Altho Ephraim Kimberly was entitled to be a member of the Society of the Cincinnati, which was organized May 13, 1783 at Fishkill on the Hudson, there seems to have been no record found at Headquarters at Baltimore,Md. No money for dues, probably.

From "The Records of the Ohio Co." by Hulbert, Vol.1 -

"The officers of the Revolution counted strongly on the validity of their Bounty Claims & believed that the Government which they had saved, would keep inviolable its promises. The proof of this lies in the famous organization effected at Newburgh by the officers of the Army and their appeal to Congress. Brig.Gen. Rufus Putnam of Rutland,Mass. was chosen chairman of the organization." He framed the Newburgh Petition, which was signed by 288 officers in the Continental Line of the Army, June 16,1783. A comparison of the names shows that 90% of the 288 officers who signed the Newburgh Petition were members of the Cincinnati from Mass. & Conn.

Hulbert's "Ohio in the time of the Confederation" -

"Such lands to be provided by the United States etc.-" "To a Colonel, 500 acres; to a Lieut.Col. 450 acres; to a Major, 400 acres; to a Captain, 300 acres; to a Lieut. 200 acres; to an ensign, 150; to each non-commissioned officer & soldier, 100 acres."

We suppose Ephraim Kimberly to have been in New York from 1783 until with his fellow travellers to the Muskingum country he reached Fort Pitt.

From Geographic Mag. "Ohio, the Gateway State" by Melville Chater.

"There at the confluence of the Muskingum and the Ohio, at Marietta, one can recapture visions of the red man's canoes enfiled on those vast waters, or of the 50-ton galley, Mayflower, built on its upper reaches by the Ohio Company of Associates, as it floated off through the hushed wilderness, bearing the New England ex-army officers who in 1788 planted Marietta on the mound builders earthworks."

From "Hist. of Marietta and Washington Co. Ohio" by Martin Andrews,
In the list of emigrants or pioneers who arrived in 1788 is an Ephraim Kimble. We believe this name should be spelled Kimberly.

DEED RECORD

Deed Book "A" - p 1 & 2 - Steubenville, Jefferson Co., Ohio -

THE UNITED STATES TO EPHRAIM KIMBERLY.

"In the name of the United States of America, To all to whom these presents shall come:-Whereas in pursuance of an Act of Congress passed on the 18th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, entitled "An Act to authorize EPHRAIM KIMBERLY to locate the land warrant issued to him for services in the late American Army" permission was granted to the said Ephraim Kimberly then and still resident on the west bank of the Ohio to locate the land warrant issued to him for three hundred acres of land for his services in the late American Army. So as to include the land where he resides or as convenient thereto as may be, provided he does not interfere with any existing claim, location or survey; And whereas the said Ephraim Kimberly has procured the said land to be surveyed by Absalom Martin in the manner by me directed from the return of which survey it appears that the said land is comprehended and contained within the following described lines and bounded, that is to say:-

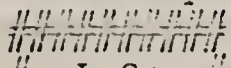

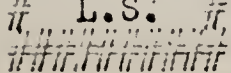

Beginning on the said Ohio River at a Sycamore tree four feet in diameter standing on the west side of the said River, thence up the said River the several courses thereof, that is to say, north 43 degrees east 6 chains to the mouth of Indian Short Creek, thence north 37½ degrees, east 3 chains to the north bank of said creek, thence north 34 degrees east 5 chains & 50 links, thence north 44 degrees east 5 chains & 50 links; thence north 36 degrees east 5 chains & 50 links; thence north 33 degrees east 3 chains, thence north 29 degrees & ¾ east 4 chains & 50 links, thence north 32 degrees & ½ east 12 chains thence north 32 degrees & ½ east 12 chains thence north 27 degrees east 5 chains east 12 thence north 32 degrees east 5 chains thence north 28 degrees & ½ east 8 chains, thence north 25 degrees east 5 chains to a sugar tree 29 inches in diameter & marked on the southwest & north sides with 3 notches, thence west 35 chains to a sugar tree 20 inches in diameter & marked on the east & southwest sides with 2 notches, thence south 50 degrees & 89 chains to a stone marked E.K. thence east 66 chains to the Sycamore at the beginning which is marked on the west & north sides with 2 notches, containing 300 Acres.

And whereas by the oath of Absalom Martin it appears that the said land is situate in the 4th. township of the 2nd. range & that the location of the said warrant does not interfere with any existing claim location or survey, And whereas the Secretary of the Treasury has certified to me that the said Ephraim Kimberly has returned his said warrant into the Treasury of the United States: Now Know Ye that I, GEORGE WASHINGTON, President of the said United States by virtue of the above recited Act do hereby grant & convey unto the said Ephraim Kimberly the said tract of land containing 300 acres as the same is ascertained & described by the location & survey aforesaid, excepting and reserving to the said United States 1/3 part of all gold, silver, lead & copper mines within the same for future sake & disposition.

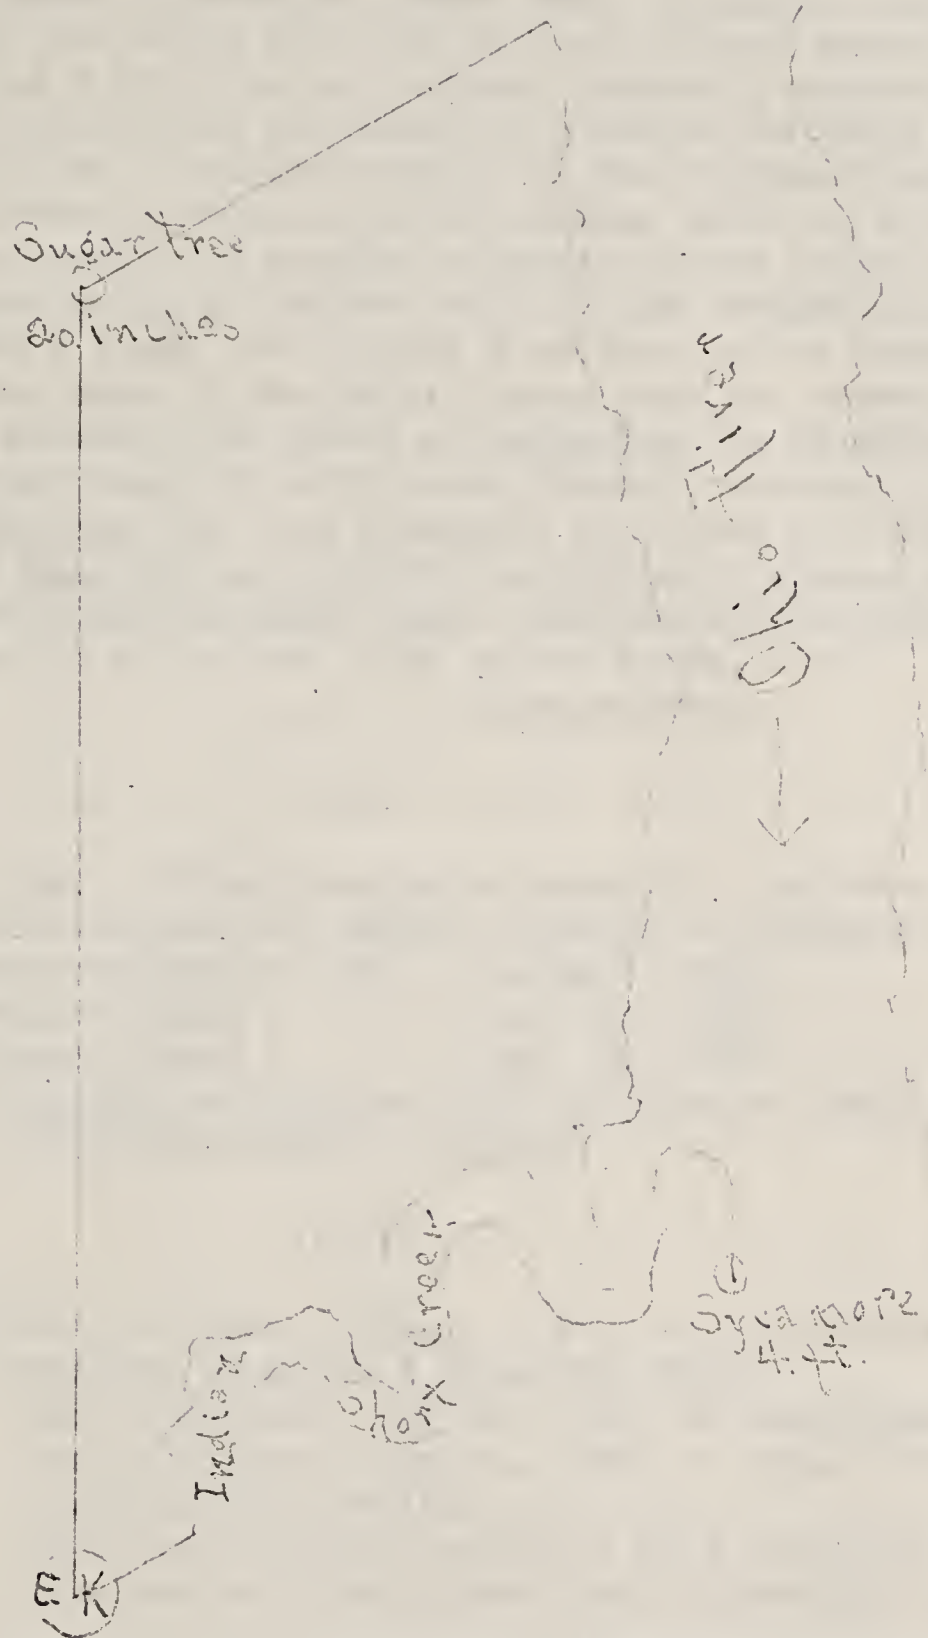

To have & To Hold the same to the said EPHRAIM KIMBERLY his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof I have caused these letters to be made patent & the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Philadelphia the 8th. of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five and of the Independence of the United States of America the nineteenth."

 L.S.

G. WASHINGTON,
President of the U.S.

Deed Book "A" p 106- KIMBERLY, FULTON & KIMBERLY.

"We, Absolom Martin, George Humphrey & Dunham Martin being appointed Commissioners for the division of a tract of land held in co-parcenary by ZENAS KIMBERLY, LUCY FULTON & PHEBE MARIA KIMBERLY, heirs of Ephraim Kimberly deceased & having been duly qualified as the law directs to act on the said business have agreed that the said tract of land shall be divided & the same is hereby declared to be divided in manner & form, viz., The boundary of one share beginning at the southwest corner of the tract patented to "E.K." & thence running east 43 chains & 50 links thence north 41 degrees east 35 chains & 50 links thence north 61 degrees east until the course shall intersect the western boundary of the said tract patented as above; thence south 50 degrees west 60 chains to the place of beginning containing 132 acres, is allotted to Lucy Fulton. The 2nd share beginning at a stake which is the north western corner of the share allotted to Lucy Fulton & Thence running north 50 degrees east, 7 chains, thence south 72 degrees east to a Sycamore on the bank of the Ohio River, thence down the bank of the river with its several courses & bindings (?) thereon to the southeast corner of the tract patented to Ephraim Kimberly; thence west 22 chains & 50 links to the south-east corner of the share allotted to Lucy Fulton, thence north 41 degrees east, 35 chains & 50 links to a stake; thence 61 degrees west to the place of beginning, containing 88 acres, is allotted to Zenas Kimberly. The 3rd share beginning at a sycamore marked as the Northeast corner of the share allotted to Zenas Kimberly & thence running north 72 degrees west until that line shall intersect the western boundary of the tract patented to Ephraim Kimberly thence north 50 degrees east to the northeast corner of said patent; thence east to a sugar tree marked 3 notches on the southwest & north side, standing on the bank of the Ohio; thence down its several courses & binding thereon to a sycamore the place of beginning, is allotted to Phebe Maria Kimberly, orphan daughter of Ephraim Kimberly deceased & contains 80 acres.

In testimony that the foregoing is a true & perfect statement of our proceedings & that the said shares as mentioned above, were by us allotted to the respective co-parcenaries above named we have hereunto set our names & affixed our seals at Warren, 15th day of March, 1798."

In 1817 Zenas brought his family down the Ohio River to Madison, Ind. where they spent the winter. They went up to Vernon, Jennings Co. early in 1818 & settled there. Again he interested himself in State affairs & was sent to represent the Co. at Corydon in 1821-22. A town in the county was named for him, "Zenas". At that time he was instrumental in organizing a Masonic Lodge at Vernon, of which he became Master of Jennings Lodge, #17. In 1821 the son of Lucy Fulton, Zenas K. Fulton was secretary of it. He also took the 1820 census enumeration there. In 1822 he became Master of the Lodge. In 1823 Zenas Kimberly demitted from Jennings Lodge to come to the new capitol at Indpls., Ind. & joined Center Lodge as a Past Master.

EDWARD RIGGS II-

Born in England about 1614, landing in Boston with his family in early summer of 1633. In 1635, Apr. 5, he married Elizabeth Roos, quite a young girl whose family from England had settled in Boston. His mother died in Aug. 1635. In 1637 he was a Sergeant in the Pequot War and he distinguished himself by rescuing a body of his companions from an ambuscade into which they had been led by the Indians. In 1640 he became a settler at Milford, Conn. and had land assigned him. In 1655 he with others established the settlement of Derby. In 1665 he and his associates of Derby, Conn. visited & ultimately founded the town of Newark, New Jersey. In 1668, the next year after the Colony was fully organized, Edward died.

The children living to maturity were:-

MILES RIGGS-

(See N.Y.Hist.Soc.)

Born at Newark or Orange, New Jersey about 1705. Nothing is known of his early life except that he was a sailor. He married Elizabeth Whitney of Norwalk, Conn. June 25, 1735. He lived in Newark with his wife and children and owned and ran a sloop for the purpose of carrying freight between New York and Elizabeth and Newark. He was in New York on the night of Dec. 24, 1753, and a heavy gale springing up, he left his lodging about midnight and went to look after the safety of his vessel in Peck's slip, where she was lying. By some misstep he fell overboard and was drowned. He died intestate and his brother Joseph administered the estate. The names of the children as well as that of his wife, Elizabeth, appear in the settlement of his affairs. His sloop was his chief possession in the line of personal property. His widow returned to Conn. with her family and in 1759 married David Rockwell.

EMORY BAXTER was the youngest child of the latest marriage of his father JAMES BAXTER, and the only son of that marriage who lived to be grown. James had been married before in Baltimore, Md., and had a son by that union who evidently came to Washington with him. This son, Wolsey Baxter, was said to have been born about 1812 so was old enough to have been father to EMORY. He has many descendants still in Washington. It is possible that James Baxter was married more than twice. Some of the descendants of Wolsey say that he lived to be 112 or 115 years old.

My father, EMORY, died before I was interested in family history, and what I know, I have been told by my mother who went with my father as a bride to live in Washington, D.C. when quite young. Soon after their marriage they had my grandfather Baxter and my father's sister come to live with them. Grandfather was very old, mother thought he must have been in the nineties. There was a tradition that he was born on the ocean coming from Ireland, but he did not seem to know his age. The census records vary both as to his age and as to the place of his birth.

We do, however, know that he was a veteran of the War of 1812.

In "The British Invasion of Md.-1812-1815" by Wm.M.Marine, page 214, is the following: "JAMES BAXTER-private in Captain Stewart's Company, 51st. Regiment."

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The first part of the history of the United States is the period from the discovery of the continent by Christopher Columbus in 1492 to the establishment of the first permanent settlements. This period is characterized by the exploration of the continent by Spanish, French, and English explorers, and the establishment of the first permanent settlements by the English in 1607.

The second part of the history of the United States is the period from the establishment of the first permanent settlements to the American Revolution in 1776. This period is characterized by the growth of the colonies, the struggle for independence from Britain, and the establishment of the United States as a new nation.

The third part of the history of the United States is the period from the American Revolution to the Civil War in 1861. This period is characterized by the growth of the United States, the struggle for slavery, and the establishment of the United States as a new nation.

The fourth part of the history of the United States is the period from the Civil War to the present. This period is characterized by the growth of the United States, the struggle for civil rights, and the establishment of the United States as a new nation.

The fifth part of the history of the United States is the period from the present to the future. This period is characterized by the growth of the United States, the struggle for civil rights, and the establishment of the United States as a new nation.

On June 30, 1932, my mother, Alice Jordan Baxter, made a notarized statement as follows:-

"State of Indiana, County of Marion-

I, Alice Jordan Baxter, widow of James Emory Baxter, do hereby certify that in the early years of our married life - probably in the 1870s - my husband frequently spoke of his Aunt Becky, of whom he was very fond. She was an old lady, living in Baltimore and was my husband's father's sister-in-law or sister. His father, who was very old, lived with us for awhile about that time and occasionally visited his relatives in Baltimore and also in Washington County, Pennsylvania.

Signed --- Alice Jordan Baxter."

Aunt Becky was found to be the wife of a Wolsey Baxter, presumably a brother of James, for whom James named his son.

Considering the age and lack of memory of JAMES BAXTER, it is quite possible that a more remote ancestor and not he, was born at sea.

At the D.A.R. Library, Continental Hall, Washington, D.C., is a copy of "THE BAXTER FAMILY", 1913 - by Miss Frances Baxter, concerning the descendants of George and Thomas Baxter, who were of Westchester Co., Pa. pp 13 & 14-

"In 1645 the Dutch Governor's Council of eight men at New Amsterdam was arranged to be one-half Dutch and one-half English. The English were Capt. Underhill, George Baxter, Rev. Mr. Doughty and Richard Smith. Soon after, 160 Dutch settlers arrived from Curacao where they had been dispossessed by the Portuguese and the Englishmen were dismissed. During the War, Keift had taken all the settlers into the pay of the Company to serve as soldiers but had now no further need for the English. Among other Englishmen in the Company's service or settled at New Amsterdam were George Woolsey, Capt. Bryan Newton, Charles Bridges, Thos. Hall, and Thos. Willet. After the English occupation these settled either on Long Island or in Westchester Co.Pa."

In reply to my inquiry she wrote me - "There is one chance that you might be of the Westchester line. James Baxter in 1735 went to "Charlestown" S. Car., with his wife and sons Charles and George. His wife was Ann Gillian. But there is no record of their having remained there. They might have gone to Virginia and Maryland in later years.... James was the son of Thomas and Rebecca Baxter of Westchester, N.Y." Was this James the father or G'father of my JAMES?

My father, EMORY BAXTER, was a Dry Goods merchant with his store at 1920 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D.C., on the south side between 19th and 20th streets, a bit nearer 20th., in the 1860s & 1870s.

In the Wash. Directory of 1843 -

"Thomas Baxter, painter - south side Penn. Ave. btw. 19th & 20th, W near 20th."

Was this also a coincidence?

Tradition has it that the title of "Lady" belonged to some CLOKEY ancestress in Ireland. Mrs. L. B. Hauptmann (Cousin Lola) wrote me in 1925 "your great grandfather, Samuel Clokey married Elinor McKinstry in Ire. Her people were opposed to the match because of the difference in rank. They later became reconciled, but she, because of the difference socially, was willing to come to America, which they did in 1799."

It is thought they came direct to Washington as there was great building activity there at that time to prepare for the removal of the seat of Government to the new city. Samuel, in this country was a contractor and builder.

The Deed records of the city show that Samuel commenced to invest in real estate in the new Capitol of his adopted country almost as soon as they had settled. In 1799, 1801, 1802, 1803, several in 1811, and 1812, a couple in 1813 and some in 1814. It was later, in the heart of the downtown district - on G St., F St., E St., 13th. & 14th. etc.

Excerpts from a letter written by a J.M.Clokey of Decatur, Ill., dated Mar.25,1902, to Samuel Clokey at Phila.Pa.

"The original CLOKEYS who came to Ireland were JOSEPH & WILLIAM, who came over with William of Orange." "My grandfather, Joseph Clokey, was a descendant of the above Joseph and lived in Ballynahinch." During the Rebellion of 1798 he was second in command. He was taken captive and lay in prison until early in 1799 when through Masonic influence he escaped, being secreted in a hogshead and smuggled onto a ship and arrived in this country Mar.17th., 1799, locating in Dauphin Co.Pa."

"I have a statement from a Mr.Joseph Whitfield Gibson, whose grandmother was Elizabeth Clokey, a granddaughter of William Clokey, a lineal descendant of the William who came, with his brother Joseph, from Scotland with William of Orange in 1688. Her father's name was Samuel who had two sons, Robert and Samuel."

"Robert was a Royal Architect who drew all the plans for the Glebe buildings for the Bishop of Down & Connor and was a Covenant-er. His brother Samuel was said to have gone to America and nothing more was heard of him." "No dates are given as to facts. His grandmother, Elizabeth Clokey was buried at Nockbracken,Co.Down,Ire."

Mary Smythe Clokey Baxter, my grandmother, joined Foundry M.E.Church in Washington,D.C. when she was about fourteen years old. At that time it was called a chapel. She was one of the charter members. Her son, my father, EMORY BAXTER was named for the noted Bishop Emory, founder of Emory University in Georgia. The Emory family was an old Maryland one. Also Smythe was an old Maryland name, as was Baxter.

EMORY BAXTER was a devoted and very active member of Union M.E.Church, in Washington & later of the little Meth. Church in Kensington,Md. serving as Sunday School Superintendent in both, for many years, as well as a member of the Official Boards of both. The Sunday School was his particular joy.
